RT Management Limited (RTM) was co-founded by Lily Pang, Marcus Wong, and Jerry Liang who are best friends and became business partners and Mark Lui was the first creative artist they signed under the company they formed.

Today, RTM is an all-round brand consultancy and management company for designers, artists, KOLs, and brand owners. “We believe that art and business complement each other. With our highly experienced team, we deliver quality, innovative, and distinctive brand image services that create true value for any business,” says Lily Pang, Co-founder & Director.

“We manage your ideas” is the slogan of RTM. “We’re an all-round brand consultancy and management company, we offer solutions and executions to our clients,” says Pang.

Passion for Work

“China is the biggest market everyone looking at right now and our team has over 15 years experience in doing business in China and has established a well-connected network in China. This makes RTM stand out in the market.

We’re facing different obstacles everyday. We believe that our passion for our work can overcome any obstacle, says Jerry Liang, Co-founder & Director.

Marcus Wong, Co-founder and Director adds: “Our plan is to bring our artists and brands into China and showcase Chinese artists and brands to the world. There’s a long way to go before we can say that we’re successful. Our motto is be passionate about what we’re doing,” says Wong.
