

WOOLOOMOOLOO PRIME

No Hype! Just Pure Pleasure

If a restaurant is to be a satisfying dining experience then the Woolloomooloo Prime at The One in TST is a choice to be savoured.

World-class restaurants are remembered long after they are enjoyed and the Woolloomooloo Prime in TST, Hong Kong is one such unforgettable experience.

Blessed with location, a breathtaking view of Hong Kong makes it an ideal choice for personal and corporate celebrations. The ambience is welcoming and suggests you aren't in for overpriced nouvelle cuisine but rather, innovative, wholesome, satisfying fare cooked with the freshest ingredients and passion rare to come by these days.

Value for Money

"We believe in the virtue of a no-nonsense approach to fine cuisine," says Colin Smith proprietor of the Woolloomooloo Group as the appetizer – the Colossal Crab Lumps arrive. This is a dish that goes beyond promise. Unpretentious and beautifully presented, it has to be tasted, to be believed.

The 20oz Porterhouse Steak arrives cooked to absolute perfection. Each mouthful is an explosion of flavours, the tender meat giving off its juices and aromas. A sip of exquisite Australian wine helps bring out the flavour of the meat as the afternoon sun dances off the Victoria Harbour to complete a most serene lunch. On all fronts -- quality of food and service, range of fine wines and of course the unbeatable views, the restaurant scores high marks.

"The idea is to offer customers an unforgettable dining experience complete with the best wines and freshest food cooked just the way you want it. We are modestly priced for the quality of product we offer which is why the restaurant is COLIN SMITH: "We are modestly priced for the quality of product we offer which is why the restaurant is both, a personal and corporate favourite for locals and foreigners alike."

both, a personal and corporate favourite for locals and foreigners alike."

Recommended

"We cater to all sorts of corporate events offering the kind of flexibility that allows companies to tailor-make their events here. We have a great can-do attitude and with our experience we are able to offer ideas on how to organize a memorable event. Our customers enjoy the kind of friendly, informal service we offer too. The idea is to be not just a great restaurant but a venue for an evening outing. Some customers even just come in for a drink and to enjoy the view and others come with their friends, families, and loved ones to celebrate."

As top class restaurants go in Hong Kong, few have what Woolloomooloo does in terms of quality of total product. On most counts the restaurant offers value for money given the freshness of its food, customer-friendly staff, ranges of fine wines and drinks and some of the most spectacular views of Hong Kong's harbour. The restaurant is highly recommended by this magazine. Enjoy. ■

For additional information please visit www.wooloo-mooloo.com